

THE SAFETY CONFERENCE, SYDNEY 2009

Call for Paper- Topic suggestions

Applications required by Friday 1 May

1. Injury Management

- Workers compensation
- Rehabilitation
- Successful return to work programmes
- Self Insurance

2. Wellness

- Healthy life styles
- Fitness for work
- Pre & post work programs
- Coping with Shift work
- Fatigue management
- Health promotion

3. Safety Culture and Human Workplace Behaviour

- Bringing about Attitude change
- Promoting Cultural change
- OHS, the catalyst for changes
- Undertaking an ergonomic assessment
- Fitting the machine to the man

4. National Issues

- Working within a Harmonised system
- Working across borders
- National accreditation of OHS professionals

5. Design/Construction and Rail Infrastructure

- Designing hazards out
- Hazard control
- Involving the work force
- Contractor Management

6. Hospitality Industry

- Security at public venues
- Emergency planning
- Public safety programs
- Manual handling
- Security at public events
- Setting up an OHS System
- Induction programs

7. Tools for Safety Reps

- Leadership influence
- Working as a consultative committee
- How to identify hazards
- Putting into place effective control measure
- Meeting common goals
- Undertaking workplace incident investigations
- Beyond tomorrow
- Innovative OHS consultation

8. Lessons Learnt Sharing Solutions

- Getting managers to be involved
- Promoting a risk management approach
- Maintaining a OHS system
- Practical safety leadership skills
- Measuring OHS performance
- How do I get due diligence

9. Corporate Governance

- Harmonisation. The future?
- Building a risk management capability
- Getting due diligence right

10. Non linked topics

- National Harmonisations what does it mean?
- Change the future not blame the past
- Controlling Hazards work locations
- Emerging hazards and controls
- Applying a Machine guarding standard
- Dealing with an aging workforce
- Measuring risks
- Learning from critical events
- Measuring OHS performance
- Transition from learning to knowledge

The Safety Conference, Sydney
Presented by the Safety Institute of Australia (NSW Division)

Organiser: Australian Exhibitions & Conferences Pty Ltd Tel 03 9654 7773 Fax 03 9654 5596
Email safetyconference@aec.net.au Web www.thesafeyshow.com